

Peer to Peer Support Group for Pandemic Providers

What: Sunday Virtual Support Group
For: Front Line Healthcare Providers
When: Weekly, beginning January 10th 4pm – 6pm
Platform: Zoom, limited to 15 participants
Facilitators: Matt Modrcin, PhD, LCSW and Bill King, MA, LPC

In recognition of the personal and professional toll that the Covid-19 pandemic has taken on essential healthcare providers, we are offering at no cost, a virtual peer support group. The group will focus on your concerns, emotions, grief, fatigue, and the like, related your work with COVID patients and their families.

Matt has been a clinical social worker in Oregon for over 35 years with extensive experience providing individual, couple, and group psychotherapy. Bill has been a Licensed Professional Counselor for the past two decades, and is the past Behavioral Health Specialist for Tualatin Valley Fire & Rescue.

We welcome the opportunity to provide a safe and confidential space for you to meet with other professionals and share your experiences of working and living in this unprecedented crisis.

If you would like to participate, or have questions, contact Matt at mattj3rd@aol.com. Please share this information with co-workers.

Thank-you for your dedication and sacrifice. Matt & Bill
